

4 Pump Court sponsors UK-China Arbitration Summit 2021

We are pleased to be sponsoring the UK-China Arbitration Summit 2021 in association with the Bar Council. The online event will run between 19th and 22nd January 2021.

This summit will bring together leading practitioners from the UK and China to discuss the latest developments and industry trends in international arbitration in both jurisdictions. It will also promote legal and business links between leading practitioners from the UK and China.

Andrew Stevens will speak as part of a panel on Thursday 19th January, following his appearance on panel sessions at the last summit in 2019. Andrew will be covering key One Belt One Road topics and other hot topics in international arbitration involving Chinese parties.

More information and registrations are available via the Bar Council.
