

COVID-19: Assistance

The COVID-19 pandemic is having an increasing impact on our clients and their businesses. In response, a team of barristers has been formed at 4 Pump Court, consisting of experts working across the range of Chambers' practice areas, to help clients navigate and mitigate the risks they are exposed to as a result of these challenging times.

Our team is available to assist on both immediate and longer term issues resulting from COVID-19. We are well placed to advise on concerns relating to our areas of expertise, including unique combinations of these areas. Current experience includes:

- Commercial contracts
- Construction, engineering and infrastructure

- Insurance, including coverage and business interruption
- Reputation management and government relations
- Shipping, shipbuilding and marine insurance
- Technology
