

COVID-19: Important Notice

Like all of you, we have been closely monitoring the COVID-19 pandemic since its inception in order to respond as necessary. Our priority is the health and wellbeing of all whom we work with and our wider responsibility of serving our clients. To that end we have implemented a robust, well tested plan which enables us to operate at usual capacity and ensure a high quality service: business as usual in other words.

We wish all our clients good health in these challenging times.
