

Doha Seminar 27 October 2015

James Bowling will be speaking in Doha at Charles Russell Speechlys' seminar focusing on various aspects of the construction, contracting, engineering and projects market in Qatar. In this seminar they will focus on the all too familiar territory that is the final account wrap up, looking at:

- It's widespread use across the Middle East region including Doha
- Impacts on the employer and contractor
- Ramifications for the subcontracting and supply chain
- Practical tips on how to do it better
- Do you have to do it at all?
