

Jeremy Storey QC retires from the Bar

Jeremy Storey QC has retired from the Bar, after over 40 years at 4 Pump Court, having been appointed as the new Judge of Appeal in the Isle of Man and will be stepping down as Joint Head of Chambers on 19 October 2017. Nigel Tozzi QC will continue as Joint Head of Chambers, with Nicholas Vineall QC taking over as Jeremy's successor with effect from 20 October 2017.