

R (Miller) v the Prime Minister [2019] UKSC 41: An Unlawful Prorogation

On 24 September 2019, the Supreme Court handed down its unanimous judgment in R(Miller) v the Prime Minister [2019] UKSC 41 holding that the prorogation of Parliament had been unlawful and was null and void.

4 Pump Court's Edward Garnier QC and Anna Hoffmann were acting in this case for Sir John Major, one of the first to announce that he would be joining Gina Miller's legal challenge. Edward and Anna review the key points emerging from this seminal judgment in this short article.
