

Roddy Dunlop QC joins 4 Pump Court

4 Pump Court are delighted to announce that Roddy Dunlop QC is joining chambers. Roddy was Legal 500 Scottish Silk of the Year for 2019, and is now expanding his practice to include matters in England and Wales. He is the only Scottish silk ranked in 8 practice areas by Chambers UK, and is ranked as the Star Individual for commercial dispute resolution as well as in Band 1 for areas including media law, professional discipline, professional negligence and public procurement. Roddy will continue to practise in Scotland from Axiom Chambers and will practise from 4 Pump Court for his English work.

Joint Head of chambers Sean Brannigan QC comments as follows:

“We are delighted to welcome Roddy to Chambers. He has a reputation as a stellar advocate and complements many of the areas of work which chambers is already well known for.”
