

Simon Hale joins 4 Pump Court

4 Pump Court are delighted to announce that Simon Hale will join Chambers with effect from 22nd October.

Simon is a highly regarded junior with a thriving commercial practice both in litigation and international arbitration across his areas of expertise. Recognised by clients as “exceptionally talented” and “excellent, sharp-witted and pragmatic”, his work mainly focuses on construction, professional negligence and commercial disputes.

Simon’s arrival at 4 Pump Court will be an excellent addition to Chambers and further strengthens our continued growth and reputation for excellence in advocacy.
